Matador & the
Tattered Capes & Saylen duPont

BETTY H FAIRFAX HIGH SCHOOL
THURSDAY, JULY 21ST 7PM MST

ARTIST BIOS

Matador & the Tattered Capes delivers old school vibe while fusing flamenco and funk for lusciously smooth grooves. Pulling sounds from bebop, 90's hip hop, 70's soul/motown, and latin flamenco, M&TC bring groove and authenticity above anything else to their music.

Saylem duPont (she/her) is a singer-songwriter and music educator from Gilbert, Arizona. She is currently in her third year at ASU, pursuing her degrees in Music Education and Vocal Performance. Saylem has been writing songs for over 6 years now, and was awarded the Keli May Foundation Artist Spotlight Scholarship in 2020 for her song "Yard Sale Saturday." Saylem also teaches voice and piano lessons and loves making music with her students. She is ecstatic to be opening for Red Letter Daze and is so grateful for the opportunity to share her music!

Aaliyah Bancod (she/her/they/them) is a vocalist, songwriter, arranger, and lifelong music lover from Chandler, Arizona. After finding a particular fondness for choral music in high school, she attended Northern Arizona University where she earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Music in 2018. While at NAU, they participated in various choral ensembles, including the NAU Axecidentals a cappella group which they were a founding member of. Currently residing outside of Seattle, Washington, they are studying electric bass and following their dream of becoming a professional touring musician in a rock band.

Emily Drum (she/her), also known as Drums, is a singer and musical creator who developed her love of music in band and choir. She attended A Cappella Academy in 2016 and 2017 which led her to the Arizona a cappella community. She directed and arranged for the collegiate a cappella group 'Amplified' from the University of Arizona, through which she became an award-winning arranger, songwriter and producer. Emily is also a young and upcoming singer songwriter, having released three of her own songs in the last year. Emily is excited to continue her work and creative aspirations as a singer, songwriter, composer, arranger, vocal producer, and coach in the Phoenix area this August.

Celine Durney (she/her) has been actively engaged in music throughout her life in various mediums. As a proud Mesa native and Northern Arizona University alumna, she currently teaches choir at Greenfield Junior High School as well as Gilbert High School, and she is now an Adjunct Music Faculty member at Chandler Gilbert Community College directing their first contemporary a cappella group, Vocal Remedy.

Celine has been nationally recognized as an outstanding singer, arranger, and educator and enjoys continuing her work as a freelance musician around the Phoenix area, especially within both of her professional a cappella groups, Side Note and Red Letter Daze (with whom she's excited to make their official QUARTET debut this evening)!

MaryAnne Muglia Smith (she/her) is a multi-instrumentalist, singer, and arranger from Mesa, Arizona. She grew up singing and harmonizing on the road with her dad and brother and fell in love with performing especially in her high school choirs. She graduated from Northern Arizona University with a Bachelor's Degree in Choral Music Education. Since graduating, she has taken various freelance jobs arranging for and coaching choirs in Arizona and virtually all over the U.S. She currently directs choirs at All Saints Church in Mesa, teaches private lessons, and spends time with her sweet little new baby and husband.
